Hi all ,

I hope this email finds you well.

Please accept this email as formal notice of my resignation from my position at In2It Technologies, effective from today, 10 April 2026. My last working day will be 10 July 2026.

This has been a carefully considered decision. I am genuinely grateful for the opportunity to have been part of the organization and for the many experiences it has provided. The time spent here has offered valuable perspectives—both in terms of professional development and in understanding the kind of environment where I am able to contribute most effectively and sustainably.

I sincerely appreciate the exposure and learnings I have gained during my tenure. They have played a meaningful role in shaping my expectations around collaboration, communication, and overall workplace alignment.

Over the coming months, I will ensure that all my responsibilities are transitioned smoothly and diligently. I trust this period will allow for a structured handover and continuity across ongoing work. Please let me know if any further information or formalities are required from my end to ensure a smooth transition.

I kindly request you to initiate the process for my Experience Letter, Relieving Letter, and Full & Final Settlement, along with any other formal documents required at the time of separation.

Thank you once again for the opportunity and support extended to me during my time here. I wish the organization continued success moving forward.

Yours sincerely,
@Shubham Rathee
